HAS AN ADVANTAGE.

The Montreal Star demands to be told "which shall be the greater, Winnipeg or Washington?" Well, there may be room for argument on the point, but if the Canadian people have to continue paying taxes into the United States treasury for the privilege of selling their wheat and cattle the chances seem to incline in favor of Washington.

AFRAID OF THE VOTERS?

Mr. Borden announced a few days ago, in reply to questions that it was not the intention of the Government to bring down a redistribution bill this session. There would, he said, be more information available next year than there is at present upon which to base the redistribution. The reason assigned is as curious as the refusal to bring down the bill is remarkable. The redistribution, whenever made, must be made on the basis of the census taken a year ago last summer. The information secured by that census was all collected and tabulated long ago. As a matter of fact it was published many months ago, and the census-takers discharged. What further information relative to the population of the various parts of the Dominion can be derived from the census of 1911 in 1914 than is available in the closing days of 1912 or the early weeks of 1913?

If the Premier wishes his avowed reason to be taken as a real reason he should explain what he means by it. In the absence of explanation it looks to be nothing better than an excuse, and a pretty poor one. The fact appears to be that the Government are afraid of a redistribution of seats, which would add to the quota of members from Western Canada, lest the Opposition should force them to go to the country. The curious statement of the Premier must serve to confuse rather than dispel that impression of the matter.

MERELY ADVERTISING HIMSELF.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, M.P., is again trying to break into the limelight as a champion of reduced railway rates for Western Canada. A word on behalf of this desirable innovation is of course welcome, from whatever quarter it comes. But the West will not build expectations of any immediate or startling reduction upon the promised assistance of Mr. Maclean. We had an experience last session of how much Mr. Maclean's championship of lower railway rates is worth. Mr. Maclean made a long speech in the House of Commons in support of a motion proposed by himself condemning the existing rates and demanding their reduction to the Eastern level. When he had finished, Hon. Frank Oliver asked him if he meant that railway rates throughout Canada should be equalized. Mr. Maclean replied that he did. Whereupon Mr. Oliver announced that the Opposition would vote for his motion. This unexpected support made it certain that the motion would carry, and equal rates be established as the law of the land East and West. But with the certainty that the motion would carry established, Mr. Maclean withdrew it, because the approval of the motion would be a vote of censure upon the Government which Mr. Maclean supports. With that incident in mind, Western people will not run wildly expecting of getting cheap freight rates through the activities of Mr. W. F. Maclean. What that gentleman is after is not lower railway rates for the

THE ENDS AGAINST THE MIDDLE

A committee of the Toronto Board of Trade, reporting on a cause of the increased cost of living in Canada, says: "One cause operating in Canada, as a whole, which performs the office of foodstuffs to be higher in Canadian cities than in London, is the tax levied on imports of food from abroad and paid of course by the Canadian consumer. This tax was intended to protect the Canadian farmer in the time of Canadian scarcity and to be operative in times of Canadian plenty, but the development of the packing and shipping industries, coupled with the growth of cold storage facilities, has made it possible today for a group of men to entirely control the price at which our farmers must sell certain products—namely all possible buyers being in the groove and also to maintain the price at which the consumer must buy the same products up to the level of the foreign price plus freight plus duty. That this tax on the importation of food has resulted in raising the price of food to all who live within the tax area is now clearly seen by the industrial classes of Germany and Austria, and is apparently becoming obvious even in the United States. In these countries manufacturers and municipal councils are joining forces with the artisans in demanding the removal of the tax on foodstuffs."

The committee thus lay the blame for the increased cost chiefly at the door of dealers who have no arranged matters that they dictate both the price the farmer can get and the price the consumer must pay. That was the ground the Liberals advanced for thinking that reciprocity would help to moderate the cost to the consumer while also tending to increase the price obtained by the farmer. The opponents of free trade profess themselves unable to see how reciprocity or any other measure could accomplish two such seemingly opposite purposes at once. The report of the committee cited above should help those of them who are capable of being so discern the point. Lower cost to the consumer does not necessarily imply lower prices to the producer; nor better prices to the producer in a live or dead cost to the consumer. Either or both may be accomplished by reducing somewhat the profits of the consumer's combine and the other interests which stand between the producer and the consumer and take toll from both. This the interests are enabled to do because the United States tariff forces the Canadian producer to sell to them, and because the Canadian tariff forces the Canadian consumer to buy from them. Reciprocity, by wiping out the United States duty on his products would have freed the producer from the monopoly of the middleman to whom he must now sell, and by wiping out the Canadian duty on similar products would have freed the consumer from having to buy from the same middleman. Thus the man at each end of the process would have profited, at the expense of the man in the middle.

Remarkable on the Side

"The railroad grade," quoth the magistrate, "is the place for some men—about a hundred miles from whither." He may be right enough. Some people maintain that the staff held by the railway cannot rightly be called whither.

It is now pointed out that the present man will probably cost the Ontario empire more territory than it has ever before lost in any one year, so that Turkey will have the satisfaction of knowing that, if beaten, she has at least put up a new record.

Magistrate McKelven, of Winnipeg, has a distinct grievance, in that he has to pay the cost of a defendant that leaves him in doubt as to what is really the matter with him. The Court of Appeal merely suggests that his sympathies overcame his judgment.

TERRIBLE EXCESSES BY TURKS REPORTED

Christian Villages Held Responsible for the Cutting of the Telegraph Lines and a Debauchment of Troops Ordered to Inflict Punishment.

By Bulletin's Special Wire. Constantinople, Dec. 8.—Letters from a late date from Constantinople report terrible excesses by the Turkish troops in that district. The telegraph lines have been cut beyond Gallipoli, the military authorities hold the Christian villages responsible for the work, and ordered a detachment of troops to punish the residents.

The troops burned the houses, held many of the villagers for ransom, massacred those who refused to pay, assaulted the women and carried on wholesale pillage. The villages of Maligna, Kelen, Karagiali, Aiolli, Grahmar and Eranli were practically destroyed. The Turkish reinforcements from Asia Minor continue to arrive at Gallipoli.

The authorities at Janina report that eight battalions of Turkish troops, the remnants of the Monastir army, have reached there with artillery and ammunition, thus strengthening the Turkish position at that important Albanian town.

CORRESPONDENCE

MISS BESSIE NICHOLS ANSWERS DR. PARK.

Editor Bulletin.—The remarks made by Dr. Park at the meeting on Kinsdale avenue last Thursday evening, and reported in your paper on Friday morning, did not come to my notice till Saturday evening. They seem to form the climax of his pre-election utterances, and as they contain several references to me, I shall be glad to have opportunity in your paper to make the following comments.

Dr. Park has published in his election manifesto a long catalogue of the progressive measures that have been passed or proposed by the school board during the school year just ended. He has followed this up in public by claiming full credit for each and every reform on his list. At the Kinsdale meeting last Thursday he finished by reading denunciations as the leader of a minority of three fighting a battle to the death with the remainder of a board of seven over his pet schemes and emerging finally from the struggle, ruffled, but triumphant. The whole picture is absurd to a degree. The procedure of the school board forms no exception to that of boards in general. The majority rules. The vast number of the forlorn hope must have gathered to himself at least one or two additional supporters besides the "use my often used in his description of the fray. As a matter of fact, every measure, without exception, introduced last year, which could be described with no uncertainty as "progressive," had not only the suffrage of a majority of the board, but received the votes of all such records as are kept of the votes cast at board meetings will bear me out in this.

And let me say right here, that even if Dr. Park's statements happen to be couched on these records with a certain few of the motions referred to, it does not by any means follow that the measure was his bright idea, and his alone. The substance of these motions in many cases are suggested by requests from outside sources. This was the case with the making public of the school playgrounds, for which the request came from the parks commission, and with the granting of the winter use of school grammars to societies interested in the welfare of the young men and women of our city. In many cases they crop up in the natural development of business. The idea is in the air, and several members unite in it at once the final mover of the motion then only goes on the records by courtesy of the rest.

This might be said of the raising of salaries and the institution of medical inspection. However, by far the greater number of what might be specifically called "progressive measures," arise, as certainly should be the case, from suggestions contained in the reports of paid officials of the board. Such was the case with the appointment of school nurses, the establishment of a commercial course in the high school, and the institution of technical day and night schools.

The first appeared as a recommendation in a report of Dr. Egan's, and the last two in one of Superintendent McCall's received by the board towards the end of last spring's school term. The truth is that those of us, whom Dr. Park so violently denounces as enemies of progress, were far more anxious to see these measures through than he, and were only hindered by the lack of the time needed by Dr. Park and his cohorts in recommendations and personalities, from which on more than one occasion I was fain to withdraw. Had Dr. Park supported the plans of Superintendent McCall in regard to technical schools six months ago, we would have had night schools, if not day schools, by this time in full working order.

As to the matters of telephones and kindergarten, I agreed the first, in the form it was reviewed to the board, and the second in any form at all, because I believed that either was a very doubtful good. And as to the deliberation of committee remaining open to press and public, I have yet to see what specific good result is to be effected by this change in our old custom.

There are a number of other things that might be of like nature, but I am sure of them might seem to transmute the personal arguments with which Dr. Park has been wont to bolster up his actions on the board, I refrain from using any more of your valuable space. Yours truly,

BESSIE H. NICHOLS.

EMPEROR'S BROTHER RENOUNCES HIS RIGHTS

Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich Wishes to Retire From Court Life to That of a Private Country Gentleman—The Case is Dismissed.

By Bulletin's Special Wire.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 7.—Emperor Nicholas and the members of the imperial family are greatly upset by the determination of the Emperor's only brother, Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovich, definitely to renounce his rights to succession to the throne. The momentous marriage contracted in 1910 by the grand duke with the divorced wife of a brother officer was recently blessed by the birth of a son. This event prompted Grand Duke Michael's decision. His wishes to retire to the private life of a country gentleman, assuming the title of prince, in order to enjoy domestic bliss far from the atmosphere of the court, for which he never had any desire.

The emperor is opposed to this step all the more because of the recent illness of his only son, Crown Prince Alexander, which has revived fears for the succession.

The sons of the late Grand Duke Vladimir, who would become the next candidates for the throne, subsequently share their father's intense unpopularity. All claims of well informed Russians, indeed, regard the possibility of their succeeding the throne as disastrous for the dynasty.

The dowager empress, Marie, is so increased at the action of Grand Duke Michael that she announces that she will not return to Russia unless he changes his mind. Such a change would involve dissolution of the morganatic marriage.

Calgary Promoter Has Not Given and Hyland.

Special to the Bulletin.
Calgary, Dec. 8.—Dwight Burns stated tonight that he has not given up hope of staging the Hyland-Bayley bout for Calgary. Burns has shown an inclination to be fair to Burns and meet him before half-weight and there is a chance that he will be arranged, though it is not so late that it is unlikely the bout will be staged on the 15th. Should it be too late for the Hyland-Hyland bout, Burns will endeavor to get some other attraction and will try and stage Hyland and Bayley before the 15th. He determined whether he will sign with the Edmonton or the Calgary promoter. The move after made by Burns has attracted favorable attention, according to Hyland, but he has not made it public.

RETAIL TRADE ACTIVE SAYS DUN'S REVIEW

2nd Wholesale Trade is Quietest Down in Preparation for Annual Stock Taking—Reports From Cities to H. G. Dun & Co.

New York, Dec. 6.—Despatches to Dun's Review from branch offices of H. G. Dun & Co. in the leading trade centres of the Dominion of Canada state that while distribution at retail continues active and manufacturing industries are all busy, wholesale trade is quietest down as usual towards the end of the year, in preparation for the annual stock taking.

Montreal reports that the weather is too mild to suit furriers and clothiers but a fair retail business is being done and Christmas specialties are sold rather quiet on account of stock-taking but results have been very good and prices remain firm. Groceries are in seasonable distribution.

Hides are firm at the recent advance. There is a continued demand for leather.

All reports from Quebec are favorable, wholesalers receiving orders and putting up orders and holiday trade promising well.

Wholesale merchants at Toronto are beginning preparations for stock-taking and business shows signs of slowing down, but retail business in Christmas goods is active and promises to be very satisfactory. Dry goods sales very firm and distribution is up to the average. Groceries are in good demand and there is a fair trade in hardware and metals.

Satisfactory conditions continue at Hamilton in practically all lines and a large holiday trade is expected. Conditions in the Far West and Northwest continue favorable.

Winnipeg reports that general trade is up to expectations and that more reasonable weather has been a stim-lating effect.

There is a fair demand for all kinds of merchandise at Saskatoon, with especial activity in hardware and building material.

Current business at Calgary is in well maintained volume, with the demand for holiday goods very large. Vancouver reports that cold weather has increased the demand for heavy goods and that trade in both retail and wholesale lines keeps up.

Gross earnings of all Canadian railroads reported to date for November show a gain of 16.7 per cent as compared with the earnings of the same month for the same month last year.

Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada numbered 26, against 41 last week and 28 the same week last year.

An incident of the close of the election is seen in the fact that the clerks are almost overwhelmed with tens of thousands of "ballots" sent by various candidates to tell the electors in the polling places for their support and telling where to vote. Early this morning these letters were being sorted and the clerks are busy with the sorting of the ballots.

It is thought that all of the above will deliver a fine night's sleep.

CHOLESTERAL OUTBREAK IN CONSTATINOPLE

Constantinople, Dec. 7.—Cholesterol is causing great havoc in the great numbers of the Turkish capital. It is officially admitted today that over 1,000 cases have developed and that the total number of cases is about 20,000. The disease is being fatal. This cost, however, is believed to have been much less than the real figures and the epidemic generally is expected that authorities are minimizing the outbreak.

Overcoming Obstacles in Pavement Construction

The past season has been abnormal in respect to the nature and extent of the difficulties that faced contractors on construction works. The supply of labor has been irregular, the securing of material has been a huge task, and the interruptions caused by unfavorable weather have been frequent and protracted. In order to carry out a program of public works within the time limit suggested, it has been necessary to adopt radical and aggressive measures. Even with the adoption of such steps all the works projected by the civic authorities have not been completed.

Pavements have furnished a notable exception. All the works that were undertaken were completed on time, regardless of obstacles. What those obstacles were can be judged from the experience of those engaged in laying the BITULITHIC PAVEMENT. Fine weather, as everyone knows, is essential to progress in out-of-door construction activity. The weather of 1912 was decidedly unfavorable, to use a mild term. Long periods of rainfall made it necessary to suspend operations in cases where they had been begun, and to postpone the beginning of the other contracts. By midsummer it looked as if little or nothing would be accomplished, although full advantage was taken of every fair working day. As the autumn drew near the concern of the ratepayers increased, and even as late as October 31 there were serious doubts as to whether the BITULITHIC contracts could be carried out.

The weather was not the only obstacle. The lack of material caused almost as much inconvenience. Arrangements had been made to obtain the requisite broken stone and gravel from the plant of the Edmonton Gravel Company at Clover Bar, but it was impossible to arrange for the construction of a spur track at that point to facilitate deliveries. The material was actually brought out by teams, at great additional expense and with a succession of delays. A famine in cement threatened to tie up the work at different times through the summer, due to the inability of Canadian firms to supply the quantities required. With all the care that was taken to obtain material near at hand, it was necessary eventually to bring cement from Chicago. As for broken stone, sixty carloads were brought from Calgary, at a cost for freight alone of $1.80 per cubic yard; twenty-two more from Saskatoon, at a cost for freight of $3.60 per cubic yard. This stone was supplied from the crushers of BITULITHIC & CONTRACTING, LIMITED, at those points, and a serious difficulty was overcome in that way.

It was in the actual laying of the BITULITHIC PAVEMENT that the greatest and most important results were achieved. In seventeen working days between November 11 and November 30 more than 53,000 square yards of surface material were laid in Edmonton, an average of over 3,100 square yards per day. All records of pavement construction in Canada were broken by that performance, and it is doubtful if it has been duplicated in the history of paving on this continent. It is to be borne in mind that this work was carried through in the face of the obstacles that have been mentioned. It is also well to remember that in other cities in the West other paving companies have been subjected to severe criticisms for their failure to finish their contracts on time.

The people of Edmonton are to be congratulated on having secured so much good work on their roadways. They have reason to be proud of their improved streets. The paving contractors have been called upon to exert every energy to keep faith with the civic authorities, and the results should be mutually satisfactory. Edmonton deserves to have the best pavements that can be secured, and she is getting them. Obstacles in construction may be eliminated from consideration in view of the fact that all the contracts have been completed on time.

DR. J. PARK.
The subject of this sketch was born near Union in York County, Ontario, about a half century ago. After pursuing the ordinary Public and High school studies he graduated from the Toronto Normal school after which six years were spent in the teaching profession. During those years Dr. Park chose the medical course as his next active field and in 1894 he graduated from the Toronto Medical College. Then followed a thirteen years of successful practice in the east.

About this time the call of the West brought him as far as Edmonton, where he has given up ten years of his life. These ten years have been filled with faithful service. He has been first, a good physician, and at the same time has not spared any effort which might benefit the conditions about him, particularly as regards medical affairs and school conditions. He has been for some years a valued member of the Board of Health. He gave considerable time and thought to the preparation of the Alberta Medical Act. In 1911 he was elected a member of the Alberta Medical Council and at its first meeting was elected President. His service in this capacity were appreciated, for in Alberta had the Medical profession of Alberta elected him a member of the Dominion Medical Council, and he has but recently returned from Ottawa, where the first session of this body was held.

McArthur was working here and manager for Guy Campbell, railroad contractor, of Ontario, and was one of the men who stepped until the completion of the road, and made good.

Mr. McArthur then went east and took charge of work on the Copper Range railroad North of Michigan. For C. E. Loss and company, railroad contractors of Chicago. After the completion of this road he went to Bruce Mines, Ontario, and started business as timber buyer and general merchant, where he remained for five years. After two years of ill health he gave up the business and returned to Edmonton, where, after regaining his health, he went into the building and contracting business.

To the Electors:

I have delayed announcing my candidature, hoping that men who are as well, or better qualified for the position of alderman than I am, would offer themselves for election, but a sufficient number have not, in the opinion of my friends doing so, and they have asked me to again enter the contest.

I made no specific promises in my former election campaign and will not do so now, as I feel that each matter that comes before the Council should be dealt with on its merits. I have worked strenuously in the best interests of the City during my term of office and will continue to do so if re-elected. I have pondered to no element, political clique or organization, believing that a large majority of the citizens will appreciate and support upright, conscientious and consistent conduct on the part of their representatives.

I ask not only the votes of my friends, but also their active support in getting others to vote as they vote, as from my viewpoint the interests of the people are more at stake than my own personal interests, in the class of men that are to be elected to conduct the affairs of the city.

JOE CLARKE'S Advertisement!

How can an Alderman post himself on City business if you have a Mayor who will not tell you the same story twice—especially about Paving?

In connection with the statement denied by His Worship G. S. Armstrong at the Citizens' Meeting Wednesday night, the following information is given to the electors, to justify and establish the statements and questions asked of the Mayor by Alderman Clarke.

Commissioners' Report, No. 102, dated June 11th, 1912.

In response to questions asked May 31st.

And as PER THE "ASSURANCE GIVEN" the present companies "in view of their reduction of price on a quantity" they awarded them less than they tendered on.

That THEY WOULD "RECEIVE ANY FURTHER PAVING" which might possibly be done during the present season.

The city is under a MORAL OBLIGATION to keep faith with these contractors, as we expect contractors to keep faith with the city.

And the Quibble, Excuse and Reply of His Worship to these absolutely contradictory Commissioners' Reports, the information in each of which comes only from the Mayor, is that "I was in Winnipeg June 11th."

Why this deception? What is the motive?

Is this the way your Representatives should be kept "posted on city business"?

Candidate for School Trustee 1913

To the Electors of the City of Edmonton:

At the request of many prominent citizens I have offered myself as a Candidate for School Trustee at the forthcoming Election.

In doing so I realize the position as important as that of Mayor or Alderman, as the same great problems confront the School Board in a rapidly growing city in establishing and maintaining schools, as confront the Aldermanic Board in increasing the public utilities with the general growth of the city.

Having been a resident of the city for the past 12 years and having always pointed with pride to our school system, I am not surprised by any city of similar size in the whole of Canada, I will, if elected, serve to the best of my ability in the promotion of future extensions in keeping with our present institutions, and will at all times deal with educational matters which may come before the Board in a manner which I think are in the best interests of the general public.

Candidate for School Trustee 1913

The undersigned Ratepayers hereby nominate Mr. A. Butchart for the position of Trustee for the Edmonton Protestant Public School District, No. 7, for the term of office commencing January 1, 1913:

Rev. D. H. McQueen, Alex. Taylor, D. W. McDonald, J. E. Wallbridge, Robert Lee, W. D. Ferris, J. R. McIntosh, W. J. Relfe, J. Whitelaw, W. Elliott, A. C. Fortin, John McDonald, Percy W. Abbott, A. F. Ewing, E. B. Edwards, H. W. Campbell, J. M. Thom, John T. Ross, W. Ramsay, R. H. Knight, H. W. Douglas, J. D. Hyndman, O. P. Strong, W. C. Inglis.

30 Years in Edmonton.

18 Years' Experience as a Teacher; 6 years in one of the best model schools in Ontario.

A member of the Board in 1908.

Finance Commissioner of the City for three years.

Stands for a policy progressive enough to keep Edmonton in the lead of any city in Canada in its schools; and conservative enough to see that any proposed policy of the Board is well considered before it is adopted.

COOKING CLASSES POSTPONED.

Owing to the Christmas season being such a busy time for girls and women generally, it has been thought better by the school board to postpone the cooking classes advertised as to be held in the High school building, until after New Year's Day.

These classes afford an unequalled opportunity for systematic training in the art of housekeeping.

The instruction is given by a lady who has been for many years in charge of the domestic work in the Y.M.C.A. "rational" department.

Those who are interested in the subject of housekeeping will be glad to hear that the classes will be held in the Y.M.C.A. building.

IF SEEKING INFORMATION.—Professor of Philosophy, Simon Duggan, who is seeking the educational society of Toronto, Ontario, will be in the city Saturday, to remain for a few days.

On Sunday at 2 o'clock he held a big meeting in the Christian Church at No. 1144, 1146 and 1148, where he was received by the Christian society of this city, and where he collected free subscriptions for the benefit of the National Education League.

He is travelling to get first hand information on the agricultural conditions existing in the West, and the effect of the war on the country.

The Christian League are 38 and one-half million in whole—over Austria alone are living in the province known as Galicia, number five million, while 20 and one-half million are under Russian government in (Krasna) (Russia).

The reason of this terrible state of the country has been that the people were all killed and mutilated, and that the cause of this was the war.

Consequently they are now being to have their own schools where people would have opportunity of receiving education and those who intended to migrate to Canada would be taught to read.

The Christian League have become tired of the conditions which they have to live and they are beginning to feel that if they are to have fair opportunities, they must seek in other lands.

In the whole of Canada there are living 20,000 and in Edmonton alone, about five thousand.

Mr. Duggan, after visiting the city of Edmonton, will go back to the C. N. R., visiting the cities and towns situated on the line.

After visiting the cities, he is going to the United States to visit the Canadian there, where they are living in number of millions.

F. M. McQUEEN'S ATTITUDE.—Owing to advertisement the following write up of Frank M. McQueen, candidate for alderman, omitted in those of candidates in Saturday afternoon's issue of the Bulletin.

Frank M. McQueen, the youngest candidate in the field, being 36 years of age, is a graduate of Harvard College, Philadelphia.

He came to Edmonton about six years ago and engaged in the general mercantile business which he has followed with success. He has since also entered the real estate business and his record as such is probably one of the best.

He also has had several years' experience in the railway business and is, without a doubt, one of Edmonton's most progressive business men, his faith in Edmonton being unshaken.

Mr. McQueen, in answering the questions regarding the liquor traffic proposed by the committee elected for the mass meeting in McLaughlin's church on Monday night, says he agrees with the sentiment of that meeting in the main. He will do all in his power to have the law regarding the sale of liquor to drunken men enforced. He would not advise the lifting of the liquor license in a growing city like Edmonton.

He opposes any effort to continue the social vice by segregation or any such means.

DR. HARRY B. SMITH.—Dr. Harry B. Smith is a native of Waterloo County, Ontario. He graduated in medicine at Toronto University with the class of '78 and subsequently spent a year of medical work in Edinburgh and London.

VOTE FOR W. J. MAGRATH

The Progressive Candidate for Mayor, and Thereby Ensure that Edmonton
Will be Kept Up-to-Date. . . . .

Mr. Magrath's Platform in Brief is:

I am in favor of carrying on the City's business with the greatest publicity. There will be no star chamber sessions of the Council or the Commissioners.

I pledge myself to give the people an honest, economical and business like administration.

I stand for a systematic plan of civic improvements.

I am in favor of a complete Street Railway System through the construction of loop lines as the population warrants.

I am in favor of a fair wage clause which will be binding upon every contractor doing business with the City.

I would place our utilities on a basis where we can meet outside capitalists halfway with respect to the supply of power, water, etc. The City should finance the drilling of a well for gas and if found in sufficient quantities supply the citizens with natural gas.

I am in favor of going after the outside dollar in the form of industries. We have the raw material and should transform this into the finished article in this City.

Our Civic needs now require large extensions to our various utilities if they are to keep pace with the natural development and increased population of the City.

I STAND FOR:

Adequate street railway service.

Street paving, curbing and boulevarding.

Development of power for manufacturing purposes.

A wholesome water supply.

Improved street lighting.

Keeping on hand sufficient material for civic improvements.

A public Auditorium.

A department for the prevention of and spread of diseases.

The City beautiful idea.
